Cummings' Comments

Of all that God longs to reveal to us, He most desires that we would simply come to know Him. Of all the great mysteries, truths, plans, and longings of His heart, He most desires that we would find all our satisfaction, joy, and purpose in relationship with Him. Jeremiah 9:23-24 describes this profound desire in the heart of God. "Let not the wise man boast in his wisdom, let not the mighty man boast in his might, let not the rich man boast in his riches, but let him who boasts boast in this, that he understands and knows me, that I am the Lord who practices steadfast love, justice, and righteousness in the earth. For in these things I delight, declares the Lord." What greater knowledge is there than that of God? What greater pursuit exists than knowing the heart of our Creator, the God who would lay down His life to make Himself available to us? You and I can know God in deeper, more transformative ways than we can know anyone else. Through the blood of Christ, God has made Himself more available and nearer to us than we have yet to discover. Psalm 46:10 is a powerful and incredible command of the Lord. Our heavenly Father says to us, "Be still, and know that I am God." In a world wrought with the hectic chaos of task after task, God says to us, "Be still and simply know me." In a world founded on the principles of political power, earn and receive, God has an open invitation before us to know Him apart from any merit of our own. We can know God simply because He desires to be known. We can know God simply because He loves us right now, as we are. More than God desires any work of our hands or any gifting He could place within us, He wants us to know Him. So often we get caught up in the works of the kingdom and forget that our chief purpose in life is simply to be enjoyed by God and to enjoy Him in return. This life is meant to be about relationship above all else. It's meant to be about continually encountering the heart of our heavenly Father that we so often live without. Out of all that we know, may we know God Himself the best. Out of all the knowledge and wisdom we can gain from Scripture, may our highest pursuit be a true, intimate knowledge of its Author. Out of all the earth-shattering works set before us, may we know the God whom we serve. And at the end of our days, may our lives have been chiefly marked by a true, passionate, intimate relationship with our heavenly Father.

Love You All, Jack Cummings

"I Will Fear No Evil"
(Echo after each line)

Chorus:

I will fear no evil (Echo)
I will dread no pain (Echo)
Through the blood of Jesus (Echo)
My suffering's not in vain (Echo)
God will get the glory (Echo)
For all my soul endures (Echo)
I will fear no evil (Echo)
My victory is sure (Echo)

Shadows cannot harm me (Echo)
With the threat of death (Echo)
I know in whom I have believed (Echo)
He's never failed me yet (Echo)
He prepares a table (Echo)
In the midst of enemies (Echo)
When I feast with Jesus (Echo)
It knocks demons to their knees. (Echo)

Chorus:

Though I may be wounded (Echo)
I will not retreat (Echo)
No weapon formed against my soul (Echo)
Will triumph over me (Echo)
Every tongue that rises (Echo)
In judgement, God will stop (Echo)
He said the battle's His (Echo)
He'll give it all He's got (Echo)

Chorus: twice with a tag

Tag: I will fear no evil (Echo)
My victory is sure (Echo)

As we go through these insecure times, I plan to make this my personal fight song. The words have a reflection of Psalms 23, not Spirit-written, but beautifully written.

Look at the Evidence for God's Family!
1 John 3:10-24

- I. Follow the Evidence.
 - A. Who belongs to God and who belongs to Satan?
 - B. 1 John 3:7
 - C. Watch out for deceitful people and the deceit that comes from Satan.
 - D. 1 John 3:10-11
- II. Evidence found in our lives and what that evidence proves.
 - A. If you were on trial for being a Christian, would there be enough evidence to convict you?
 - B. Three aspects of evidentiary timelines.
 1. The Exposure of the Evidence
 - a. Our actions
 - b. Our attitudes
 - c. Our activities
 2. The Examples of the Evidence
 - a. Our actions define us.
 - b. Our examples expose us.
 3. The Examination of the Evidence
 - a. Look at our actions.
 - b. What do people see?
- III. What does the evidence say about you?
 - A. What does it say about your heart?
 - B. Does it condemn or commend?

A place you and your family can call home!

Farmer's Harvest

"...in this world we are like Him." 1 John 4:17

Welcome, Home! It is good to be here with you for our family reunion. We have the opportunity to be back doing the things we need to do to expand the church and family of God in our area as a part of this West Freeway Family. I am so thankful that God has given us comfort from the storms of life, if we will but look for His wing's shelter.

The loss of many members has hit us already this last year. It has been difficult to face each one, but the loss of one of our long-time members and elder's wife, Janie Herring, caught many of us off guard. I know that you have been praying for these families, and I ask that you continue to pray for them. We need to pray for those who have lost loved ones and those suffering from COVID. Many of our families are in a rehab center or nursing home. Many have been confined to home because they are at high risk if exposed to COVID. I am convinced that as the vaccine is distributed, we will be given the green light to go about our regular lives. That is what I am so looking forward to. From what I am hearing, two weeks after the second dose of the vaccine is given, we should be able to go about without the fear of acquiring the virus. I want to hug, shake hands and live free of concern again. This has shaken our world now, but this world is not our home. Remember, we are just passing through. Let's be people of prayer. We need to be back to some sense of normal.

Men, we would love to have you join us for our Monday night class. It has been a blessing to be a part of this group. The study, the God of the Covenant, has been outstanding. I am looking forward to going through it again. I missed so much while I had COVID, and I believe I will learn even more the second time through it. I hope to see you there. We start at 6:30, and we strive to dismiss by 7:00 p.m.

I am so blessed to be a part of this wonderful church family.

I love you all so much.

Britt
