

Ted talks...

We are learning more and more about Jesus every week. I thought I knew all about Jesus but, in my youth, I was taught how important it was to be at church every time the doors were opened and many times, I opened the doors. I got all I thought I needed to get to heaven, but I was so wrong. I needed more than a church building, I needed the reason for all of this, the man, Jesus. Please, look at these beautiful words, written by Jessie Dixon, who passed on in 2011, at 73 years of age.

Gone

Mary came to find the tomb of Jesus
The stone was moved, the Lord had gone away

The angel said, "fear not, the Lord is risen
Don't seek the living, here among the dead".

Chorus:

Gone, the stone is rolled back
Gone, the tomb is empty
Gone, to sit at His Father's side
He's gone, over death triumphant
Gone, sin is defeated
Gone, He lives forevermore.

Oh, come with me and see the risen Savior
Who, still can turn the darkness of death into day?

Who calms the storms of doubt?
And parts the ocean
Who still can roll your heavy stones away?

Chorus:

Final chorus:

Gone, the stone is rolled back
Gone, the tomb is empty
Gone, to sit at His Father's side
He's gone, over death triumphant
Gone, sin is defeated
Gone, He lives forevermore.
He's gone, He lives forevermore and evermore.

These words, written by a man, who was not inspired of God, was inspired by what God has done for us. You read these things in the glorious Word of God, and I pray you will heed these truths in your daily walk.

Elder of the month: James Herring

Are You Ready?

The forecast is for ice and snow before the end of the week. We all know what that means! Grocery stores will soon sell out of bread, milk and water. Covers for outside faucets will sell out, too. Some will even buy generators to be sure they have an uninterrupted supply of electricity. We Texans know how to survive! Be prepared!

If only the Bible was followed as closely as the weather forecast! God's forecast is clear. The wages of sin is death (Romans 6:23). God has appointed a day in which He will judge the world (Acts 17:31). The only certain thing about life is that we will die and face God in judgement (Hebrews 9:27). The Bible speaks of only two eternal alternatives. Either I will be saved and live with Christ forever (1 Thessalonians 4:17) or lost and live eternally in a hell prepared for the devil and his angels (Revelation 14:11).

The parable of the wise and foolish virgins makes the point clearly. The wise virgins took oil in vessels as well as the oil in their lamps. They were prepared for the bridegroom, even though he was delayed. The conclusion to the parable was, "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour in which the Son of Man is coming." (Matthew 25:13)

In all my preparations for the storm, I intend to prepare to face God.

Chris Graham
