Paid in Full

I like to see a receipt with the words "Paid in Full" stamped in bright red letters. I like that proof that I paid a debt completely. Mistakes happen. Occasionally, a bill is mailed when a debt has already been paid. It is a real comfort to find that paper with the words "Paid in Full."

Colossians 2:14 describes the Old Testament as a bill I could not pay. It is filled with the "hand-writing of requirements that was against us." According to the previous verse, Christ has "forgiven you all trespasses." Instead of a rubber stamp and red ink, the Old Testament and all those sins were cancelled by the nails and the blood of the cross. Hallelujah!

Have you ever paid a debt twice? Perhaps you received a bill and forgot that you had already paid. What a shame to pay for a debt already paid in full! Jesus died for our forgiveness. Have you accepted God's gift of salvation? Do you keep living in guilt over past sins that God has already forgiven? Like Paul, I may consider myself the chief of sinners, but Paul accepted God's grace. He knew Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners. Paul serves as a pattern for us (1 Timothy 1:16). The chief of sinners has already been forgiven. I can be forgiven, too. The bill has already been paid in full.
