God Bē In My Hēad

God Bē in my hēad,
And in my undērstanding;
God bē in my eȳes,
And in my looking;
God bē in my mouth,
And in my spēaking;
God bē in my hēart,
And in my thinking;
God bē at my end,
And at my dēparting.

Praying without ceasing...

Love and sympathy to Marie Clark on the passing of her brother, Charles Sullivan, from Louisiana.

Jeremy, one of the four young men that have been visiting with us, is having some health issues. Please keep him in your prayers.

Linda Riggs has started chemo medication to help with a condition she has. If not treated this could turn into leukemia.

Other Members in need of Prayer: James Blakley, Tom Cain, Johnnie Dukes, Bob Durko, CR and Margaret Hamilton, Joy Jones, Frank Piksie, Diana Richardson, Patsy Riddle, Dolores Thatch.

Family Members:

Paula Teel requests prayers for her nephew, Jody Butler. He has colorectal cancer, and it has spread to his liver and abdomen.

Please keep Randy McClendon's dad in your prayers. He has been put on Hospice for the last stages of dementia.

June 5-7

We still need many volunteers! We need someone to work the sound booth, drama coordinators and helpers, three group leaders for the booths, group leaders and helpers, and help with clean-up after VBS is over. Please see Brandon Kaag if you can help in any way.

"You Are What You Eat!"
(Revelation 10:8-11)

John was told to---

1. Take the Book: Direction - (v.8) John was Instructed to take what was offered!

- (1) Psalm 119: 11
- (2) Psalm 119: 105

2. Eat the Book: Digestion - (v.9) Eating is a universal idiom for the reception of knowledge.

- (1) Jer. 15:13-17
- (2) Ezek. 2:8
- (3) Ezek. 3:1-3

3. Apply the Book: Distribution - (v.11) The Word of God is good food for the Christian:

- (1) Bread (Matt. 4:4)
- (2) Milk (1 Peter 2:2)
- (3) Meat (1 Cor. 3:1-2)

Dangerous Assumptions

It is tragic when a young person dies. It is doubly so when that death could have been prevented. Robbie Roper's death at 18 almost defies description. His death, on December 22, 2021, is an object lesson in dangerous assumptions.

USA Today ran the story Wednesday, May 4th. No one had known exactly why Robbie had died until his father explained the cause. Robbie fell ill attending a family reunion. According to his father, James Roper, "He was fine. He was on the beach, laughing and carrying on and having a good time on Saturday. And then Sunday he started throwing up, and we just thought he had a stomach flu or something." Nobody takes a healthy, 6-4, 210 pounds, 18-year-old athlete to the hospital just for throwing up once or twice. When he had not improved by Monday, his mother took him to an urgent care center. From there, he was transported to two different hospitals.

Unfortunately, medical professionals at the first hospital he was taken felt sure Robbie had taken drugs. Robbie denied it and phone calls to his friends and classmates back home confirmed that he had never been known to touch drugs. Those investigations took time. His condition deteriorated. He had to be transferred to another hospital. Eventually, the second hospital found that Robbie was suffering from a rare genetic condition (urea cycle disorder). By the time they figured it out, it was too late for dialysis to save Robbie's life.

Robbie's father shared the cause of his son's death to save lives. Perhaps we should learn from this tragic story as well. It is so very dangerous to assume. God's prophet Eli assumed Hannah was drunk when she poured out her heart to God in prayer (1 Samuel 1:13-16). When in doubt, give the benefit of the doubt. "Judge not that ye be not judged" (Matthew 7:1).
