

How To Get Along

Ephesians 4:32

Just one verse – it will be enough.

Psalm 119:11 – “Your word I have hidden in my heart,
That I might _____ against You.”

Let’s learn this verse, one phrase at a time.

1. “Be _____ to one another.”
2. “ _____ ”
3. “ _____ one another.”
4. “Even as God in Christ _____ you.”

Enjoy It!

Science and experience declare that if one neglects to eat for too long, that person will die. I accept that as a fact. I know it is true. Anyone who knows me well (or has sat near me at a potluck dinner) knows that I do not eat just because I will die if I don’t. I eat because I like to eat!

While it is true that one who will not become a Christian (Luke 13:3; John 8:24) or live faithfully after obeying the gospel (Revelation 2:10; 2 Peter 2:20-22) will die the second death of an eternal hell, I hope that’s not the only reason you are a faithful Christian. In Christ we find the abundant life (John 10:10) not just fire insurance.

What a joy it is to worship because I want to praise God. How wonderful it is to enjoy the fellowship of my dearest friends on earth. How sad it must be for anyone who attends worship simply because he or she must (Hebrews 10:25). What a thrill it is to share the gospel with someone and witness their new birth in baptism. How sad it would be to do so only out of a sense of guilt and obligation (even though that obligation is real – Ezekiel 33).

Don’t be a Christian simply because you don’t want to die the second death. Enjoy the new, abundant life Christ offers!
