Several weeks ago, a group of men and women began a search for the next pulpit minister here at West Freeway. After considering several candidates, it was narrowed down to three men.

On Sunday, June 27th, one of those men will come speak for us. His name is Zane Copeland. He has just returned from mission work in Mongolia. Prior to that Zane was the minister for the church in Leedy, OK, for eight years, and before that worked with a congregation in Lawton, OK.

We are encouraging all of our members to be here that Lord's Day to encourage Zane and his family. We will continue to give you more details.

Please continue to pray for the work here at West Freeway. We are thankful for these men and women who have served on the search committee.

May God bless the work here.

My Praise to God

Whenever I offer praise to you
To tell you how I feel
I don't know whether to stand and sing
Or maybe just should kneel
But either method that I use
Please listen to my heart
'Cause sometimes when I want to write it, I don't know where to start.

You're working with me daily
To move the devil away
You've surrounded me with loved ones
Who know just what to say.
I really want to thank you, Lord
Because you put this in my heart
And for the first time, in my entire life, I did know where to start.

There are a lot of bad things
That I let enter in
But, please help me realize, oh Lord
That it's the devil making me sin.
We seem to always have a need to give someone else the blame
So, I praise you, Lord
For giving us the right to wear your name.

There's a name above all others
Wonderful to hear, bringing hope and cheer.
It's the lovely name of Jesus, let this man proclaim,
"what a lovely name".

You all should know me well enough, by now, to know that I will borrow a phrase or even a full verse from a song writers' pen to make a point. Thank you, Charles Wycuff, for that last thought.

1. Why is this one verse of scripture so important?
2. We see this scripture everywhere.

So again why is this text so important? Notice the following --

1. For God - The Greatest Being!
2. So loved - The Greatest Intensity!
3. The World- The Greatest Territory!
4. That He Gave- The Greatest Action!
5. His Only Begotten Son- The Greatest Gift!
6. That Whosoever- The Greatest Offer!
7. Believeth In Him - The Greatest Effort!
8. Should Not Perish - The Greatest Promise!
9. But Have- The Greatest Affirmation!
- 10 Everlasting Life- The Greatest Treasure!

Elder of the month: John Robertson

West Freeway Church of Christ

A place you and your family can call home!

The Bible is filled with so many wonderful books, chapters, and verses. Yet one of the greatest texts of the Bible is found in the New Testament. It is the words of Jesus who said in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world, that He gave His only begotten son that whosoever may believe upon Him should not perish but have everlasting life."

For years we saw John 3:16 and the phrase "Jesus Saves" at sporting events on the T shirt of a man with a rainbow wig. We even saw a professional wrestler mock the scripture with his own interpretation of the passage. But think, if you will, of someone hanging on a cross dying for the sins of the whole world, giving us the greatest gift ever known. As cruel and as wicked as this world was then, and still is today, God still loves us and this world. He still offers us this great gift even though we do not deserve it.

Consider today's lesson on this the "Golden Text of the Bible," "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son that whosoever believeth in Him should not perish but have everlasting life," and see for yourself why God loves us so much.

Ronnie Moore
