Ted talks...

I can only explain that my heart is aching for our beautiful America. These words were written by Kirk Talley, a young first tenor singer with the Cathedral Quartet. They have helped me answer anyone who asks, "what are we supposed to do with Satan, as he does his best to deceive us?"

Step Into the Water

It is time, we the people, stand up for what is right. It's time we square our shoulders back and raise our sword to fight, The Bible is our weapon, the Spirit is our shield. The church needs more of its members to be workers in His field.

There is victory for the Christian, who walks the narrow way, There has been a prize appointed for the ones who will not stray.

I want to live for Jesus, be all that I can be, I want to be with Him, forever, live eternally.

The chorus is where it is put into our hearts.

Step into the Water, wade out a little deeper. Wet your feet in the water of His love. Step into the water, wade out a little bit deeper, Come join angels singing praises to the lamb of God.

The words of this song help remind me that the word of the New Testament tell us that God wins. Let any hate we have be for the actions of Satan. Let us get back on God's side. He wins and we win.

A Father's love
By Kyle Pace

A father's love is never ending.
It starts when a son is born.
It fills his heart with joy
When he sees his baby boy.

A father's love is never ending.
It grows stronger each morn.
When a father cares for his child,
The love in his heart goes wild.

A father's love is never ending.
Even when his new book gets torn,
Or he finds his favorite cup
Has been broken by his son and his pup.

A father's love is never ending.
When his son learns to play a horn,
A father ignores the noise
Because that's how it is with boys.

A father's love is never ending
When his son looks at him with scorn,
A father's love will never stop
Even though his tears may drop.

A father's love is never ending
Even though things look forlorn,
A father's love waits for his son
To come back with things done.

A father's love is never ending.
Even when he is tired and worn,
Just like God's love for him,
His love will never dim.

Fatherhood Quotes

Forgive me for borrowing some of these quotes about fatherhood collected by Steven John (as published June 15, 2021, on themanual.com.) Before you read them, ponder that God expressed Himself as our Heavenly Father. He is called "our Father" 13 times in the Old Testament but Jesus called God His Father over 150 times, and called God our father 30 times. Fatherhood is a requirement for both elders (1 Tim. 3:4; Titus 1:6) and deacons (1 Tim. 3:12). Sadly, fathers are an endangered species in American society. 18.4 million children (1 in 4) live without a biological, step or adoptive father in the home. Fathers, this is not our only day. We are important to our children every day.

"I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection." – Sigmund Freud

"Anyone who tells you fatherhood is the greatest thing that can happen to you, they are understating it" – Mike Myers

"When I was a boy of 14, my father was so ignorant I could hardly stand to have the old man around. But when I got to be 21, I was astonished at how much he had learned in seven years." – Mark Twain

"You don't raise heroes, you raise sons. And if you treat them like sons, they'll turn out to be heroes, even if it's just in your own eyes." – Walter M. Schirra, Sr.

"I believe that what we become depends on what our fathers teach us at odd moments, when they aren't trying to teach us. We are formed by little scraps of wisdom." – Umberto Eco

"I was selfish before. Everyone is. But when you have kids, they become your main priority." – David Beckham

"Any fool can have a child. That doesn't make you a father. It's the courage to raise a child that makes you a father." – Barack Obama

"It is easier to build strong children than to repair broken men." – Frederick Douglas

"Every father should remember one day his son will follow his example, not his advice." – Charles Kettering

Happy Father's Day.
