Ted Talks...

I'm going to tell you all about a dream I have had for several years, but it will take a lot of help to make it happen. I need your feedback as to whether it's a pipedream or an absolute possibility, so here goes: a few years ago, at the other building, I sat up an "old time singing". We asked for all who would attend to write their favorite songs and we let all who wanted to lead a song to choose from the favorites list and be ready. There were several who led and many who stayed and sang. We did this on a New Year's Eve and sang in the New year with the "Greatest Command". It was my dream to make this an annual event, but it hasn't happened. Please, let me know if I just need to move on?

The other part is to go back to the days when after worship ends, we just stand around and sing. I would like to see West Freeway begin a special singing time like what B. B. Stevens and the Gospelairees sponsored in Cleburne in the 70's, 80s and 90s on the 2nd Sunday of each month. They called it "Cleburne Sings". They invited all Gospel singing groups in the area to come and take part.

If we could do this, we would invite any group who sings acapella to come and take part. At some point, I would actually like to take it to the park sometime. I love our Sunday evening singing time, but I don't like to quit. My perfect Sunday would be a 2-4:30 singing and either a sandwich- finger food time or all of us load up and take over Westside Cafe.

Well, I can tell you all now, I will never give up my dream of singing in quartet again, but this other part includes many more than 4. Let me know if you're interested in any of this. If you'd like, just write me a note and hand it to me. We have some special opportunities coming up, and I'd like to see us meet them head-on. Talk back, please.

Praying without ceasing...

JoAnn Smith is at Harris DT. She fell and broke her leg in two places. She had to have surgery to have a metal plate put in.

Jed Jennings has been moved to rehab. Please continue to keep him in your prayers.

Margaret Hamilton had the surgery on her foot and has been in really bad pain since coming home. The doctors think the neuropathy is aggravating the situation.

Kenneth Garner- Please keep him in your prayers. Address for encouraging notes: Kenneth Garner 1539832; 9055 Spur 591 Amarillo, TX 79107.

Other Members in need of Prayer: Tom Cain, Bob Durko, Joy Jones, Tristan Peterson, Diana Richardson, Ellie Wherry, CR Hamilton.

Family Members:

Scott Griffith, Betty Galyean's son, had a heart procedure done today. Please keep him in prayer.

Faye Quiononez, Bud Hager's sister, had a stroke and is in the hospital. She is not doing well.

John and Belinda Keeton, Bud and Tammy Hager's niece and husband, were in a bad car accident. John had had three surgeries, and expected to have more.

Family members in need of Prayer: Melanie Barrett, Mindy Miller (Diana Cain's niece).

Please keep Jose, Dinorah and JR in your prayers as they travel to Mexico for mission work. They left June 10th, and will return on July 7th. Jose would like all of you to know they appreciate all the funds that were given to help with this mission trip.

The Valley of Dry Bones

Ezekiel 37:1-14

Preachers sometimes worry that no one is listening to a sermon, but Ezekiel had to prophesy to an audience he knew couldn't hear him. They weren't just asleep, they were dead, dried bones! Ezekiel preached anyway and taught the world a great lesson about restoration.

I. There is a _____ of _____ in everyone's life.

The Scriptures teach that _____ have _____.

_____ is what _____ man from God.

_____ causes spiritual _____.

II. We can only be _____ through _____.

Ezekiel was given the impossible task of _____ to dead bones.

1 Peter 1:23 – We are born again by _____.

2 Timothy 3:15 – God's Word makes us wise unto _____.

God's Word will do _____ than we can ever _____.

III. _____ is the key factor in restoration.

Ezekiel stops prophesying to the bones and starts speaking to the _____. (Verse 8)

Ephesians 2:8-9, salvation is only through God's _____.

Our forgiveness required the _____ of _____.

Romans 8:9 – If anyone does not have the Spirit of Christ, he is not _____.

It's not too late. God can save you no matter what!

A place you and your family can call home!

Homeward Bound

Writing this on the 19th day away from home, I keep hearing a popular song from my youth play over and over in my head.

“Homeward bound – I wish I was.”

I think the last three weeks have been fruitful for the Lord. I was able to encourage a small church in Virginia and explain more fully the visitation ministry they were trying to begin. I made many excellent contacts for our new school of evangelism with many outstanding brothers ready and eager to teach including some of the brotherhood's foremost experts on personal evangelism. I also really enjoyed getting to meet Glenda's sons, wives and grandchildren.

It's just that three weeks has been a long time. I'm looking forward to seeing you all this morning and sharing a message from Ezekiel with you.

As I write this, I have one more important task to complete tomorrow before Glenda and I can begin driving as fast as the law allows back to God's country – Fort Worth, Texas!

I am reminded of the conflict Paul expressed in Philippians chapter one. He wanted to go home to be with Christ (1:23). Won't that be the ultimate homecoming? We already know and love so many who are there.

My bags are packed for home. I've got one more appointment to keep before I can go.

Let's live that way. Let's have our spiritual bags packed for heaven, completing our final tasks before we get to go. The most important of those tasks is to share God's love and His salvation with everyone we can. Let's get ready for home.

Chris Graham
