Praying without ceasing...

Ronnie Hoover has pneumonia and an inner ear infection.

Other Members in need of Prayer:
James Blakley, Tom Cain, Johnnie Dukes, Bob Durko, CR and Margaret Hamilton, Norma Jackson, Joy Jones, Frank Piksie, Diana Richardson, Patsy Riddle, Linda Riggs, Dolores Thatch.

Family Members:
Claudia Sawyer, a friend of CR Hamilton, will have to have a CT scan and after the doctor reviews it, he will schedule surgery. She cannot use her foot (leg, etc). NO weight on it at all. Please keep her in your prayers.

Paula Teel requests prayers for her nephew, Jody Butler. He started a new chemotherapy treatment and is weak. He is on antidepressants now to help him cope. His oncologist said she wants to do 4 rounds of the new drugs, then reassess.

on praying for others

Prayer is the incredible avenue God has given us to take our unedited thoughts of others and filter them so that all that remains is grace, love, encouragement and understanding.

THE FOURTH OF JULY

by Lenore Hetrick

Hurray! The day has come to cheer!
This is the big day of the year!
And why is that? You're asking why?!
Because my dear, it's the Fourth of July!

Ah, that's a day for a big parade,
And that's a day for shouting made!
A day for whooping and for cheer,
I call it the best day of the year.

In seventeen hundred seventy-six
Our country was in an awful fix.
King George, the Third – a tyrant, he!
Made us pay taxes on our tea.

Now all our forefathers looked so grim.
Said they, "We'll just attend to him.
We were certainly meant to be equal and free,
As we'll show that king across the sea!"

Then what did they do? Yes, it's really true!
But of course, I need not tell it to you.
That Declaration you know so well
Then the king's soldiers did swiftly rebel.

Now, it was on the Fourth of July –
And it brings a tear of joy to my eye!
That the Declaration to the king was made.
It throws all other events in the shade.

So hurray, I say! It's a day to cheer!
It's the only day of the whole big year.
Let's join the parade that's marching by –
And let's give three cheers for the Fourth of July!

Returning From Vacation

A friend once described his Las Vegas trip. The plane ride to Vegas was loud and happy. There was lots of smiles and laughter. The plane ride home was very quiet and subdued. I asked, "Why?" He only responded with "that" look. How can I avoid the "post-vacation-blues?"

Take the Lord with you. Be sure to take your Bible and read it daily. Worship with the saints whenever possible. Look for beauty in God's creation. Give God constant thanks for the blessings you are enjoying.

Vacation within your means. It is so easy to overspend. No one enjoys spending months paying for one- or two-week's fun (or even just a weekend). Save to vacation. Don't suffer because you vacationed.

Don't hurt yourself. It is great to enjoy new activities, but it isn't much fun trying to figure out how to get treatment for injuries in an unfamiliar environment. Magnets, postcards, and bumper stickers are much better souvenirs than bandages, casts, or medical bills.

Do nothing you will regret. Despite a catchy slogan, what happens in Vegas (or Colorado, or Europe, or anywhere) does not stay there. God's forgiveness will be available when you return, but the consequences of foolish choices can haunt us for years. Do nothing away from home that you would be ashamed of if everyone at home heard about it.

The prodigal son took a trip to a far country. Jesus got away from everyone and everything occasionally, too. There's nothing wrong with vacationing. The difference is in what I do while I'm gone.

Chris Graham
