King of Whatever Is Left

A pair of souvenir coffee mugs read, "Queen of everything" and "King of whatever is left." I found them humorous until the thought struck me. Is Jesus king? If He is king in my life, is He the true king or only king of whatever is left?

Jesus claimed all authority when He gave the Great Commission (Matthew 28:18). The promise of salvation is given to those who confess the "Lord Jesus" (Romans 10:9). Jesus demands one "seek first" His kingdom (Matthew 6:33). Jesus didn't ask for what was left of my life when He told me to pick up my cross daily (Luke 9:23).

I want to confess Jesus as Lord, but I'm not sure I want Him to interfere with my recreation. Many don't want Christ's input into their love lives. Some don't want to follow Him when telling jokes, or watching entertainment or surfing the internet. Incomplete obedience is the surest path to misery. Jesus will not be king of whatever is left.

I prefer to think of myself as a marital delegator. As king, I make only the most important and critical decisions. I'll let you know when one of those comes along.

As a subject of the King of Kings, with the gospel song I'll sing, "All to Jesus I surrender."

Praying without ceasing...

Love and sympathy to FE Jackson and family on the loss of his brother, Billie Jackson.

Love and sympathy to Debby Tinius and family on the loss of her cousin, Tommy Howard. His services were held on Tuesday.

Jackie Brewer had another heart attack, and had another stent put in on Monday (8/1). He is home now, and resting.

CR Hamilton had dental surgery on July 26, and cataract surgery on August 1. He will have his other eye done on the 15th.

Other Members in need of Prayer:
James Blakley, Tom Cain, Margaret Hamilton, Joy Jones, Frank Piksie, Diana Richardson, Dolores Thatch.

Family Members:

Lincoln, a friend of Joann Wendt at Timber Oaks, had a stroke and asks for prayers.

Charlotte, a friend of Joann Wendt, lost her husband. Please keep her in your prayers.

Paula Teel requests prayers for her nephew, Jody Butler. He had to spend several days in the hospital. They will be putting in a feeding tube, and he will continue his chemo treatments.

Ted talks...

Last week we served our 1st Responders Lunch with pizza, salads, and cookies. We are having an average of around sixty each first Wednesday of each month. This was our fourth lunch, and we are needing another 4 ladies to oversee our preparations and serving.

Up until now, Jean Sikes, Elaine Sandel, Lori Gilmore and Ollie Taylor-Brewer have been the core crew and we always have many others to show up and help. Ladies, please think about forming another crew to split months with the other group.

I am so thankful for all the help in making this program successful, especially to Richard and Sheila Bessent for doing a lot of the big cooking task. Please, think about joining our squad.

When I first got involved in this program, my personal motto became "talk is cheap". Back the BLUE is a great idea, but let us not just tell them we back them, let's show them how much they are appreciated.

Thanks to Gloria Turner and Carmiel Aldred for manning the welcome center. Jeannie Jennings, Sulamae Hooten, Bob and Shirley Durko, Jan Rhodes, Les Sweeton, Margaret York, Ronnie Hoover and our church staff for all your help putting it all together.

If you are interested in this project, please let me know. We have a place for you. God bless you all.
