Welcome to Friends and Family Day

Today is a very special day to this church. Today is family day! This is the day each year that we encourage one another to invite our family and friends who do not regularly worship with us at the West Freeway Church of Christ to be our guests and share God's love with us in worship and a meal to follow.

Most learn about salvation through friends and family. My parents raised me in the Lord and cared enough to bring me to Christ. Perhaps you had a friend who invited you to worship or a bible class or maybe vacation bible school and helped you learn about salvation. I've been meeting a lot of new friends here in Belen, New Mexico through knocking on their doors or visiting those that are friends and family of the saints here.

The number of Jesus' disciples doubled through a friends and family day in John chapter one. Andrew told his brother Simon, "We have found the Messiah" and brought him to Jesus. (John 1:42) Philip found Nathaniel and told him about Jesus. He had to overcome Nathaniel's objection about Nazareth. He countered Nathaniel's bias with the answer, "Come and see." (John 1:46)

Dear visitor, I'm glad you're here. If a friend or family member invited you, thank them. Dear brothers and sisters, remember that, although there may be another fifty-one Sundays between now and the next time we do this; every day is a great day to tell those you love about Jesus.
