

Sins That Crucified Christ

Hebrews 6:6

The sins that crucified Christ at first may crucify Him afresh. Let's explore those sins.

1. _____ Matthew 27:18
2. _____ Matthew 26:15
3. _____ Luke 23:34
4. _____ John 12:42

These sins were directly involved in the crucifixion of Christ, but my sins crucified Him, too.

A Christian Nation?

Jan Rhodes shared several quotations about the Bible from famous Americans. This one, to me, was the most remarkable:

I believe no one can read the history of our country without realizing that the Good Book and the spirit of the Savior have from the beginning been our guiding geniuses... Whether we look to the first Charter of Virginia... or to the Charter of New England... or to the Charter of Massachusetts Bay... or to the Fundamental Orders of Connecticut... the same objective is present... a Christian land governed by Christian principles. I believe the entire Bill of Rights came into being because of the knowledge our forefathers had of the bible and their belief in it: freedom of belief, of expression, of assembly, of petition, the dignity of the individual, the sanctity of the home, equal justice under law, and the reservation of powers to the people... I like to believe we are living today in the spirit of the Christian religion. I like also to believe that as long as we do so, no great harm can come to our country.

– Earl Warren, Chief Justice of the United States Supreme Court, 1954.

In our age of political antagonism and dysfunction, we may have forgotten our common beliefs. As Earl Warren began his term guiding what became one of the most liberal-minded courts in US history, he expressed his belief that Christian principles were the guiding principles of our republic.

All Americans in all political parties and persuasions need to return to the biblical principles fundamental to our freedoms. The best way that can be accomplished is to share Christ and His saving gospel. Vote your convictions. First, though, share the Savior.

Ted talks...

"The Old Rugged Cross Made the Difference"

'Twas a life filled with aimless desperation
Without hope walked the shell of a man;
Then a hand with a nail print stretched downward,
Just one touch and a new life began.

Chorus:

The old rugged cross made the difference
In a life bound for heartache and defeat;
I will praise Him forever and ever
For the cross made the difference for me.

Barren walls echoed harshness and anger
Little feet run in terror to hide;
Now those walls ring with love, warmth and laughter,
Since the giver of life moved inside.

Chorus:

There's a room filled with sad, ashen faces
Without hope death has wrapped them in gloom;
But at the side of a saint there's rejoicing,
For life can't be sealed in a tomb.
