

How to Wash Feet
John 13:1-3

What was Senneca Slocombe's claim to fame?

Everyone is faced with unpleasant, humbling tasks from time to time. Jesus was able to wash the disciples' feet. John prefaced this event by explaining why Jesus was able to perform this humble service.

1. Know what _____ it is (1a)
2. _____ the feet you wash (1b)
3. Know your _____ (2b)
4. Know _____ you _____ (3)

The High Cost of Childlessness

Periodically some statistical guru comes out with an astronomical dollar figure of how much it will cost to raise a child born today. In fact, with our current problem with inflation, the Wall Street Journal just claimed that it will cost more than three hundred thousand dollars to raise a child born in 2015 to be 17 years old (WSJ, August 19, 2022). While no one can deny that it takes money to feed, house, clothe, entertain, and educate children, have you ever considered the cost of not having children?

1. Who will think you are the absolute best at everything? (At least for a little while.)
2. Who will think you are extremely tall even though you are only five feet five?
3. Who will think you sing like Caruso even though you sound a little more like a bullfrog with a bad cold?
4. Who will be there to photograph, say silly things, and forget their lines in the school play?
5. Who will be able to provide you with the great consolation of aging – grandchildren?
6. How will you be able to understand how much God loves you? Remember, He gave His only Son for you.

Children are an amazing investment, don't you think? David called them "an heritage of the Lord" (Psalm 127:3). Be sure to invite every family you know to Trunk-or-Treat this afternoon!

Ted talks...

Well, here lately, words are not coming so easily, but I'm going to give it my best shot. You are all aware that I live for every opportunity to sing, but here, of late, my health is keeping me from being able to get it done.

Please pray for me that my joy will return to me. My family and friends give a good measure of joy in my heart, but my voice can't seem to get where it needs to be.

Enough of me feeling sorry for myself, I will continue to praise God in my heart, and someday I will again be able to do more than mouth the words.

I appreciate you wonderful folks allowing me to write in the handout each week. It blesses me that the words to good hymns and spiritual songs are available for us to share.

I've got a song on my heart and we've shared it before but it's right back where it belongs.

Who Am I:

When I think of how He came so far from glory,
came and dwelt among the lonely such as I
To suffer shame and such disgrace on Mount Calv'ry take my place
Then I ask myself the question, ' Who am I ?'
When I'm reminded of His words, ' I'll leave you never',
If you'll be true I'll give to you life forever.
Why I wonder what could I have done to deserve
God's only Son
To fight my battles until they're won
For who am I

Who am I ? That a king would bleed and die for,
Who am I? That He would pray, 'not my will but thine for the answer I may never know why He ever loved me so
That to an old rugged cross He'd go,
For who am I?
