Why Do People Misunderstand the Bible?

Whether one browses the internet or drives the streets, one need not look far to see that there are far too many churches that disagree. There are certainly more than 200 competing denominations in the United States. Some estimate there may be as many as 45,000 or more world-wide. How can this be? How can there be only one Bible and so many churches?

It is not God's will. Jesus did not pray that his disciples diversify so that everyone could have freedom of choice. The night before He went to the cross Jesus prayed,

20 Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word;

21 That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.

(John 17:20,21)

Jesus did not die to purchase a divided Christendom, but to purchase a church (Acts 20:28) that the Bible calls one body (Ephesians 4:4).

One cannot blame the Bible. It reveals all the truth (John 16:13; 2 Timothy 3:17) in an understandable way (Ephesians 3:4). I may twist the scriptures to my own destruction (2 Peter 3:16), but the Bible is not at fault.

If God and His Bible are not at fault, the fault must be with us. Watch this space in the coming weeks for a few of the reasons that some misunderstand the Bible.

Next week: Are all the words of the Bible inspired by God?

I love when God,
starts to finger paint . . .
Autumn's glorious colors
with no holds or restraint.

The colors splash about,
vibrant shades of orange-red
mingled with shiny slivers
of a brilliant golden thread.

As the rain begins to fall,
the colors appear to run
smeared across the horizon
as the clouds hide the sun.

The streets get all blotted,
with crispy yellow leaves
as they do their wind dance
to soggy roads they cleave.

I love when God's fingers begin their painting,
it reminds me of the glory . . .
He has for me awaiting!

Jeremiah 5:24

*Neither say they in their heart,
Let us now fear the Lord our God,
that giveth rain, both the former
and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.*
