What is LTC?

LTC – Leadership Training for Christ is a convention that encourages kids age 3rd grade through High School to grow in their ability to reach others by sharing Christ in many ways. Those events listed below are only a few of the ways they can be involved. Team events are not only at the convention. They can include working together on bulletin boards, making scrapbooks, helping to teach classes, writing poetry or stories that praise God, or be uplifting to others. If you have any questions at all, we can answer them, or we can get the answers. Please be involved in LTC and watch your kids grow in their faith and love for our awesome God.

If you or your kids have an interest in any of the events below – let Ron or Leslie Rutledge know. There are some qualifications for each. Some of them have already started qualifying – if they have read a scripture or lead a song or helped teach a class. So many things that they can do.

LTC Events:

Convention events – Those events that are done at the hotel (puppets, choir, Bible Bowl & Quiz, etc.)

Submission events – Those events that are done/created at home or church but taken to the hotel (essays, creative writing, poetry, PowerPoint presentation, etc.)

Challenge events - Those events that are done at home and details or items sent to the hotel (Bulletin board, daily devotionals, outreach, reading, scripture, service, song leading - 3-6 grades only, teaching)

Arlington Dates for 2022
Jan. 14-16
6th-12th Grade

Join us in Arlington for Winterfest 2022. Our world as we have come to know it, was rocked by the pandemic. Many of us were "shipwrecked" at home, at school, at work, at church. "You will have trouble in this world, but take heart, I have overcome the world." Jesus said those words.

At Winterfest 2022, we are going to look at the Farewell Discourse of Jesus from John 13-17. There is much there for us to learn, to contemplate, to practice. By faith, we are stepping out to plan 2022 to be back together live and safe. Please join the Winterfest folks and The Skit Guys, Jared Hall, Jeff Walling, Brad Tate, Eric Wilson, David "Skid" Skidmore, Stephen Maxwell & Friends Worship, and others.

Is Christmas Over?

There may be a family or two that hasn't gotten together to open presents yet, so, just maybe it isn't over for you and your house. As you read this, perhaps it is still December 25th somewhere in the world. For most of us, though, the presents have been opened and some of the toys are already broken. It's time to take down the decorations soon. Maybe your artificial tree is stored away, and your real tree is at the curb. So, I guess, Christmas is over, right?

If Christmas is a commercial celebration of presents, feasting, and family, it is probably over. If, however, it is a celebration of the coming of the Messiah into the world to save us, it just can't be over yet. The elf may be off the shelf and Santa might not be checking his list twice for another ten months, but God still cares for us.

The message of peace and good tidings to all mankind is just too good to limit to one day or one season of the year. Now that I'm a grandfather, I don't want family visits limited to one day in December. "Joy to the World," "Go Tell it on the Mountain," and "O, Come, All Ye Faithful" deserve to be sung more often than just once a year. I really wouldn't mind singing, "Mary, Did You Know?" in July!

Jesus wasn't just the reason for one season. He is the reason that everything makes sense. Admittedly, I can't repeat the gift-giving extravaganza three hundred sixty-four times through the year, but I can rejoice daily. Please say that we can be merry a while longer. I'm still glad Jesus was born.

Chris Graham
